

Circle Casting Field

Interpretation is completely free-form.

What stones landed near each other? How close or far were they from each other? Were any grouped together? Did any stand alone?

Animal-Vegetable-Mineral Field

A short term-intermediate term-long term casting field. Animals lives are short. Trees and bushes life a little longer. Minerals are very long-lived.

This is an 'establishing-priorities or time-frames' kind of casting field.

Animal

What does the situation look like now? What forces are at work here? How did all this come about?

Vegetable

What does the situation look like a little further out? Say, one to six months?

Mineral

What does the situation look like further out? Say, five years or more? What do I need to keep in mind for the long-term?

The Four-Directions Field

A good life-overview sort of casting field. Each of the four directions have certain associations with them. The stone which lands in that sector says something about its role in your life.

North

Night, Winter, Power, Authority,
Command, Responsibility,
Strength, Longevity, Harsh
Conditions, Earth

West

Sunset, Autumn, Water,
Elders, Ancestors, the Conclusion of Things,
Retirement, Pleasure &
Reflection, Changing
Weather

East

Dawn, Spring, Air, Beginnings, Fresh Starts, the Young, Power of the Mind,
That Which is New.

South

Mid-Day, Summer, Fire,
Action, Goals, Achievement,
Passion, Those in the Prime of Life, Easy Living.

The Triquetra Field

This casting field is for questions related to the interaction of body, mind and spirit, and the health of each. Stones which land in the intersection say something about what all three need for balance & integration.

The Pentagram Field

This is a five-part casting field. The five points are, from the top point and going clockwise, either birth, initiation, consummation, repose & death, or love, wisdom, knowledge, law, & power. The center is the integrative factor. Any which fall between the points relate to each point between which they fall.
