

*Spirits, speak to me this day. Show me my future the embers' way.
When I stand and walk away, this obligation aside you may lay.*

Spirits speak to me this night. Show me my future in the embers' light. When I stand and walk away, this obligation aside you may lay.

*Spirits of goodwill, come You in!
(Spirits of Malice, cast in the bin).
Show me/us the future in the embers bright, this day/night by the fire's light. When we stand & walk away, this obligation aside you can lay.*

Spirits I thank you for visiting me this day, and answering my prayer where the embers lay. May we meet again like this some day! But for now, I must walk away
