ORACLE OF THE TABLETS:

THE GOOD LUCK NUMBERS

2. This is generally a very good number, because it indicates you are about to receive a large inheritance from an unknown, distant relative. It will come as a complete surprise, for you are not even aware of his or her existence at the present time. At the very least, you may expect some sort of unexpected benefit coming to you from out of the blue.
4. A very close friend is returning from a trip abroad and will be bringing you some wonderful gifts. This person may be a serviceman, someone at a conference, or simply a tourist whom you know well. Money will exchange hands, and will be used to your benefit.
6. An excellent sign of good fortune, because it denotes an important letter is due to arrive in the very-near future. This letter will bring with it sudden prosperity, recognition from people of stature, and unexpected financial gain. At the very least, you may expect some sort of communication which will result in a betterment of your situation.
8. You are going to take a sudden and completely-unexpected trip, which will be of great benefit to yourself, friends, and family. A pleasant fellow-traveler will accompany you, someone who will be a stranger when you first meet, but who will become one of your best friends by the time you return. He or she will be a great influence on your life in the future.
10. Everything you attempt in regard to romance or marriage, business or social life will be successful. You are destined to have what is known as 'the Midas Touch' and you will become extremely rich and important in the eyes of others. Everyone will be coming to you for financial advice.
12. A meeting with someone of potentially-great importance to you is imminent. You will not hit it off at first, as another person will maliciously see to this, but you should not give up trying to win this person's goodwill. It will work out to your definite advantage if you persevere.
14. This is a very precarious number, and it will bring many drastic changes into your life if you are not more prudent in your conduct. It is almost entirely up to you as an individual which way it will go. You should consider all present activities, social and business in particular, and take the necessary measures in order to avoid problems.
16. This number is an excellent sign of luck, for everything you are presently doing will turn out to be beneficial for you. Financial gain is in store, love is close by, and all plans for the future will be realized in due time.
18. You may presently be rather badly-off financially, but you are indeed fortunate to have a number of close friends who will help you to obtain a position, wealth, and glamour. Do not be afraid to accept the assistance of these friends, for there will be no obligation for the aid. Do not let pride stop you, for such an opportunity may present itself but once in your lifetime. Jump at the chance, don't let it go to waste.

20. When this number is drawn, by either a man or a woman under the age of fifty, it indicates that children are still to be born to them, and that a childless marriage or relationship will soon bear fruit. If the person of either sex who draws this number is single, then an engagement of short-duration, followed by marriage, is close at hand. The wedding will be very large, and many children may be born of this union. Over the age of fifty, the birth of a grandchild or other new relative in a successive-generation is forecast.
22. This number is a sign of good business transactions which will change your entire outlook on life. You could well suddenly become wealthy, and go on a world tour. There will be minor problems during this journey, but nothing serious will happen. There is a good possibility that someone demonstrating amorous intent will attempt to take advantage of you, but prudence on your part will avoid long-lasting complications.
24. New adventure will soon enter your life and lead you to undreamed-of excitement. Research will be involved, and this will not be easy, but the initial hard work will pay off immensely in the long run. There is quite a bit of money which will be involved in this endeavor, but this will be handled by someone who is close to you, and is equipped to handle such matters.
26. If a single woman draws this number, she is destined to meet a handsome, rich, and faithful spouse in the near-future. If she is already married, this person may take the place of her present spouse, who will either die or leave her soon afterward. Whatever happens, she will benefit by the change, for it will mean a rise in social stature. If a man draws this number, he will meet a wealthy person and marry them.

THE BAD LUCK NUMBERS

1. A letter or message which will announce the loss of a large sum of money is due to arrive very soon. Your investments will hit a new low, and a possible lawsuit will hurt you financially. At the very least, some material loss is indicated.
3. Anyone drawing this number should definitely and immediately examine all their social relationships, business dealings, investments and investment advisors, close friends, and even some relatives. They need to do this because someone in their world is out to get them. Someone is being deceptive about their true motives. Surprises are in store for the person who draws this number, and things do not look very bright for them at present.
5. If you have drawn this number, you may never really be badly-off, financially, but failing health will keep you unhappy and worried. Business will not be as good as it has been in the past, because you have chosen an unreliable, possibly drunken partner to run it. You would do well to dissolve this partnership immediately. Do it while there is still time to save the business.
7. If you're married, watch out—because your spouse either is or soon will be unfaithful. If you're single, the person whom you are serious about is deceiving you. This person is either already married and hasn't told you about it, or they will drop you very soon for someone else. You will be heartbroken and plead for them to reconsider, but to no avail. It will hurt for awhile, but in time, you will come to see that the break-up was for the best.

9. If anyone owes you money, do not expect them to pay you back what you loaned them. Your debtor's intention was to deceive you in the first place. If any friends try to borrow money from you, do not lend it to them, for only hard feelings will be the result. If you call or write the borrower about the money they owe you, verbal abuse will be all you'll get from them in return for your generosity. You are considered a 'soft touch' and a fool by many thoughtless friends. It's time for you to do some heavy thinking about the people in your world, and how much you're prepared to do for them.
11. Anyone drawing this number should seriously consider his or her past illicit conduct. Justice is often slow in punishing the guilty, but you can be certain that it's coming. Past criminal and other wicked activities you've been involved-in have been partially-uncovered. This is enough to send you to prison, if you don't straighten-out and choose new associates.
13. If you've drawn this number, you will be extremely-unfortunate in every part of your life, if you aren't already. Your lover will be unfaithful, your job will be lost, and your money will disappear. If you marry, it will be to someone who will be a bad influence on you. This person is destined for unhappiness and failure in everything they attempt. Even good friends will drop you. All this bad luck indicates a pressing need to do inner-work on oneself. If you do so, honestly and fearlessly, you may be able to turn your life around.
15. You inspire only contempt in the mind of the one you deeply love. As things stand now, you will likely never marry, and disappointment confronts you at every turn. Some sort of great misfortune is close at hand for you. Your health will decline rather quickly, and you either have become the victim of slander, or soon will be.
17. You've been having an illicit affair with a married person, or someone in a committed relationship, and you will soon be found out. You pretend to laugh at these tablets of fortune and to despise their counsel, but in reality you rely on them when what is said seems to be in your favor. Rest assured, you are soon to be publically-disgraced. The affair has gone too far to be stopped, and know this—the cheated-on party knows both who you are, and how long it has been going on.
19. You wish to borrow money for a worthy cause, but every friend you ask will politely refuse. Some may promise to let you have it, but they have no intention of doing-so. The need will be great, as it will make all the difference in the world to you. Ready cash at this time could actually make your fortune for life, but it is not destined to be forthcoming, and this failure could leave you destitute. Some 'friends' will even try to take advantage of your plight.
20. You have been depending on the assistance of an old man for many years now. He will soon marry (or re-marry), and cut-off the relationship. The new spouse will be the major influencing factor for this sudden severance of the relationship. The two of them will noticeably refuse to recognize you at any public meetings which chance to occur. You will soon be moving to a new area because of the severance of this formerly-supportive relationship, and will meet with many new problems to solve where you move.

21. This number signals immediate trouble of a very-serious nature. Things will be discovered about you which should have remained concealed, but the exposure of this secret information will be due only to your own carelessness. Worst-case scenario, this exposure could lose you both your spouse and custody of your children (not to mention their goodwill), along with all the material things you have accumulated over the years. Happiness is not in sight, at least not any time soon.
23. Things will be stolen from you and they will not be recovered. These will include some of your most prized possessions. You will make a very unhappy journey and attend the funeral of someone dear to you. Illness is going to enter your life when it is least-expected.
25. Trouble and serious dissension are brewing among members of your immediate family. Your spouse will be cruel, and may well make an attempt on your life. Hostility will surround every moment of your life from this time on into the foreseeable future.
