

TABLET OF THE CIRCLE & THE STAR

For questions concerning home & family matters, specifically concerning parents and children.

To be consulting no more than once every 34 days.

RULES:

The inquirer sits with eyes closed and pointer poised above the diagram while another participant turns the diagram around four times. The inquirer, eyes still closed, then brings the pointer down on the diagram wherever they feel impelled to do so.

If they miss the diagram altogether, they may make one more attempt to obtain an answer. If both tries fail, they must set the tablet aside and wait three days before trying again. If the inquirer successfully obtains an answer, they must wait 34 days before consulting this tablet again.
