

TABLET OF THE MAGIC HEART

For questions concerning matters of love and romance.

To be consulted no more than once every 90 days.

RULES:

The inquirer should hold the pointer, tip-down, over the diagram while another person turns the chart under the pointer-tip three times. When the three rotations are completed, the inquirer should say aloud, with eyes still closed, Oh magic spell, lend me your art, to know the secrets of the Heart. Eyes still closed, the inquirer then brings the pointer-tip down on the chart to wherever they feel drawn.

If they have missed landing on the Magic Heart altogether, they are permitted another two tries. If those attempts results in misses as well, they must wait twenty-four hours before trying again. If on the following day, the inquirer still fails to obtain an answer, they must wait another 90 days before attempting to consult the Tablet of the Magic Heart again.
