Rules:

The inquirer sits with their eyes closed and their pointer suspended above the diagram, while another rotates the tablet three complete (360 degree) turns to the left; that is, counterclockwise. As this is being done, the inquirer should recite the following words out loud:

Mystic Orbs of Earth & Sky, Hear my plea and give reply.

Then the inquirer, eyes still closed, brings their pointer down on whatever part of the chart they feel drawn-to. If the inquirer is unsuccessful in obtaining an answer on their first try, they should not attempt to consult this chart again for 24 hours. The folklore connected with this tablet states that to defy this stricture is said to anger the Spirits of the Mystic Circles, and They will bring the inquirer very bad luck in response to the defiance of this rule.
